

Investigating the Cellular Basis of Neurological Disorders

Has your child been diagnosed with a Neurodevelopmental Disorder?

Help researchers better understand neurodevelopmental disorders

Who can participate?

Children under the age of 18 that have been diagnosed with a neurodevelopmental disorder

What is involved?

- Give a one-time skin or blood sample during your child's regular visit to Boston Children's Hospital
- Complete a brief medical history questionnaire
- Participate in play-based behavioral testing

Where does the study take place?

Boston Children's Hospital

For more information, contact Brianna Godlewski at NeuroCore@childrens.harvard.edu